- 11 c. To incur all expenses necessary for the care, preservation, maintenance of the 12 Property;
- 13 d. To take from Borrower, their agents and employees, immediate possession of the 14 Property and all things of value relating thereto, including, without limitation, its 15 Rents, revenues, royalties, issues, income, payments and profits, and any and all

- 7 h. To demand, collect and receive all Rents derived from the Property, or any part
8 thereof, including all proceeds in the possession of Borrower, or other third parties
9 which are or were derived from the Rents generated by the Property;
- 10 i. To deliver all Rents and proceeds from the Property in accordance with the Deeds 11 of Trust.

If the Receiver receives notice that the bankruptcy has been filed and part of the bankruptcy estate includes property that is the subject of this Order, the Receiver shall have the following duties:

a. The Receiver shall immediately contact the party who obtained the appointment of the Receiver and determine whether that party intends to move in the bankruptcy court for an order for (1) relief from the automatic stay, and (2) relief from the Receiver's obligation to turn over the Property (11 U.S.C. § 543). If the party has no intention to make such a motion, the Receiver shall immediately turn over the property to the appropriate entity – either to the trustee in bankruptcy if one has been appointed or, if not, to the debtor in possession – and otherwise comply with 11 U.S.C. § 543.

If the party who obtained the receivership fails to file a motion within 10 court days after his or her receipt of notice of the bankruptcy filing, the receiver shall immediately turn over the property to the appropriate entity – either to the trustee in bankruptcy if one has been appointed or, if not, to the debtor in possession – and otherwise comply with 11 U.S.C. § 543.
- d. Retain bankruptcy counsel. The Receiver may petition the court to retain legal counsel to assist the receiver with issues arising out of the bankruptcy proceedings that affect the receivership.
